

EASTER GREETINGS from

LLBN

Dear Friend and Supporter of LLBN,

The last time I wrote you, we were celebrating the birth of Christ. And now we are turning our attention to the end of His life. While both are significant, His death gives us a chance to reflect upon the supreme love Christ has for us, as shown through His ultimate sacrifice, and His promise of eternal life.

And His message to all while here on earth was to share His love. He asked us to be kind, generous, and to be a servant, as He was. His message was wrapped in Love. "Blessed are the Peacemakers."

But parts of the world today are not at peace. We see so much tragedy and heartache happening right before our eyes. The conflict in Ukraine is brutal and without reason. With all the events happening right now, we wonder if God is trying to tell us something. Perhaps it's time to be prepared for what's to come.

But what about those who are not prepared, who have no hope? Who will be there for them, giving them the answers they seek? Let me assure you, LLBN will, thanks to your many gifts, thus providing the only funds we have to keep us going.

For over twenty-five years, LLBN has been broadcasting programs about the love and promises of a risen Savior. And we continue to do that around the clock in several languages. All of us here at the Network feel the urgency of the times. We want as many people as possible to see and hear Christ's message of love and peace. And our programs also uplift those who believe.

Today, I'm asking that YOU BE THE CHANNEL that leads someone to Christ. YOU BE THE CHANNEL that gives someone hope and eternal life. Only through your gifts and many prayers are we able to reach as many people as we do. These are not the times to clutch our purses or wallets, hoping for the best. Truly, these are perilous times.

In closing, I want to thank you, and others like you, in the most sincere way possible, for the generous support you have given LLBN. As I've said many times, we couldn't do it without you, literally. And while we have a Romanian language channel about ready, and our new Broadcast Complex is entering its final stages, all that pales as we strive hard to get Christ's promises out every single day!

May God bless you and those you love,

Ganim Hanna, LLBN President/CEO

PS: Now is the time. YOU BE THE CHANNEL that offers someone Peace, Hope, Life.
