

Dear Faithful LLBN Follower,

In my last letter, I referred to the significance related to the birth of Jesus Christ. All the wonder and awe of that historic event has been referred to many times, because that nativity was such a miracle.

This letter reminds us of the horrifying conclusion of that life. But what a life it was! I am still trying to grasp all the ramifications of what Christ tried to teach while here on earth. Just imagine, here among hundreds of people, was God's own Son. He had to get His message across to religious leaders, skeptics, and the general masses. To prove His divinity, He performed miracles and other wonders. All the while, Christ never lost sight of his Mission: Honor His Father, spread love, and offer eternal life to all who believed.

However, all this effort cost Him His life. Hatred caught up with Him, and Jesus died on the cross, as a sacrifice for all our sins. But then came another miracle, recounted by Luke. When several women went to pour perfumes on His body, they were met by two men in gleaming clothes, who said, "He is not here; He is risen." (Luke 24:6) We all know the gift He left us when He arose. But what He especially wanted was for us to continue His work, His message, His Plan of Salvation.

And those are the reasons LLBN exists. Every hour of every day, we carry that message to the world. We do it on nine channels, including our newest channel in Romanian, thus adding one more group of people who will learn about Christ, or who will have their faith renewed.

But here is the amazing part. You are the one doing all this work. You, through your prayers and giving, are making all this possible. It is something of a miracle what you have accomplished. From a single local channel, you have made LLBN grow into a global television outlet of nine networks, originating from a new broadcast complex. And we still need your help. As you consider how your Savior has blessed you, I would ask you to continue your partnership with LLBN. I realize that inflation has hit us all, but your timely gift will allow many people to know and love Jesus.

We feel confident that you, again, will keep us on the air, that you will help us to spread the Good News. As we look at the condition of the world today, many could stand to receive some Good News. That is why I am making this special appeal for you to help us.

Thank you for how often you have helped your LLBN, and thank you in advance for your help again. Your gift is our only source of income. You make the difference.

May the Lord continue to bless you, and those special to you,

Ganim Hanna, President/CEO
